3.120 ALL-STAR PARTICIPATION

3.121 No student at a member school shall participate on an all-star team in basketball, football, soccer or volleyball during the student's high school career until completing their interscholastic athletic eligibility in that particular sport. A student may participate in no more than three (3) all-star contests in a sport.

223) ALL-STAR FACTORS

Q. What factors are used in identifying an all-star contest?

A. In identifying an all-star contest, answers to the following questions will be reviewed (Constitution 1.420):

- (1) Are participants selected by an individual or group according to a structural system relating to athletic ability, performance or reputation?
- (2) Does publicity for the event state or imply an honorary status for participants?
- (3) Are the contests, by name or otherwise, identified as all-star?
- (4) Does any revenue generated through ticket sales or other means accrue to, or is expenses paid by a sponsoring agency or organizations?
- (5) Is the contest sponsored by a non-school agency?
- (6) Is the contest sponsored by a school agency?

224) SAME SCHOOL "ALL-STARS"

Q. If all participants in a contest, which meets the general definition of an all-star contest, attend the same school, is the contest an all-star event?

A. Yes. The number of schools, which may have students in the contest, is not a factor in determining whether the contest is an all-star event. (By-law 3.121)

225) INDEPENDENT TEAMS AND ALL-STAR COMPETITION

Q. Is an independent team ever an all-star team?

A. It may be. According to the published list of all-star factors, if an independent team is formed to play in one game or one tournament, it is viewed as an all-star team. If it engages in a regular schedule of competition, it is a permissible non-school program, and high school students may participate. (By-law 3.111 and 3.120)

226) ALL-STAR COMPETITION WHEN ON TEAM IN ANOTHER SPORT

Q. May a student participate in a national all-star high school basketball game during the month of April when the student is a member of the school's boy's tennis team?

A. Yes, provided the student is in compliance with the all-star by-law. (By-law 3.120)
